It is so much fun, and he looked so pretty in it! I love that I found this idea for his costume on Pinterest, and my girls and I took it to another level. My younger daughter and I made these adorable finger puppets, and they were so much fun to make. They took a bunch of time to complete, but I am proud of how they turned out! So much of this project can be done with just a few dollar store items, and these are more cost efficient than buying a costume like a Freddy Krueger or a Spiderman costume. My daughter loves Spiderman, and that is what I intended for this project to be. If you love too, it is definitely a fun craft to do with your kids and the best thing is, you can reuse the finger puppets year after year! Add new comment Meet the Dad I am married to the most amazing women in the world, I work full time, and I have two precious girls.
